NOGARBAGE CONTRACTS

UPPER HOUSE COMMITTEE KILLS ONE PET SCHEME.

Decides That the City Shall Continue to Remove Garbage-City Physician Thinks the City Might Get a Revenue.

Health Officer Shirk's pet scheme to let the removal of garbage by contract instead of having the work done by the city was knocked in the head yesterday by the upper house public improvements committee which unanimously reported adversely on proposition. The committee is com-sed of Messrs. Gerhart, Seddon and posed of Messrs. Gernart, School Wyne, and stated in its report that the bresent system is the best and most satisfactory the city ever had and that under the old contract system the complaints were too numerous to be satisfactory. It is improbable that the upper house will pass the ordinance over the unanimous adverse report of the committee to which it

City Physician Coffin appeared before the City Physician Coffin appeared before the committee and made a strong plea for the passage of the ordinance, pointing out that under the proposed apportionment of $20,000 for garbage removal, which is only $1,000 more than when the new territory was outside the city, it would be impossible to give efficient service. The law requires all garbage collected to be dumped into the river, and it is therefore a dead loss. It is probable that a change in the law will be recommended, allowing the city to sell the garbage to hog raisers and thus derive some revenue instead of dumping into the fiver stuff which hog raisers are anxious to buy.

river stuff which hog raisers are anxious to buy.

"I have given this matter a great deal of attention." said Health Officer Shirk yesterday, "and I think it would be possible for the city in two or three years to not only get its garbage removed free of cost, but to get a revenue from it instead of paying out $30,000 a year. Other large dities, notably Denver, Buffalo and Philadelphia, derive a revenue from the garbage which is cooked and fed to hogs. Hog raisers are anxious to buy it but the law does not allow us to sell it. It is not generally known that nearly all the garbage in the business portion of the city is collected by hog raisers and that if it were not for this fact the city could not possibly give as good service as it does with the money at land. It costs a great deal to equip the plant for preparing the food for the hogs, but after the first year or so the hog men would be glad to remove the garbage for nothing or even pay a bonus after they had it is the city is paying out a dead loss of $20,000 a year, when it might be getting a revenue from the garbage."

NEW SIX-STORY HOTEL

IT WILL BE ERECTED AT BALTI-MORE AVENUE AND ELEVENTH,

The Ewins-Dean Company, Owner of Hotel Savoy, Closes a Contract With Bernard Corrigan for a Fine Hostelry.

The Ewins-Dean Hotel Company has closed a contract with Bernard Corrigan by which he is to have erected at the corner of Eleventh and Baltimore avenue a six story hotel building which the firm will open next March as a first-class, up-to-date hotel. The plans for the building were prepared by Gunn & Curtis. A portion of the contracts for the structure have been let. The building is to be six stories above the basement, will contain 175 rooms, and will be fireproof. It will be furnished in an elegant manner both as to the exterior and the interior. The company expects to make the house one of the most popular in the West, and will have ample quarters for the commercial trade, the plans calling for plenty of large sample rooms of casy access. Everything relating to the contract and lease has been settled upon by the parties, and Mr. Corrigan will have the work well under way by the first of June. The building is to be completed and ready to turn over to the lessees by March 1, to turn over to the lessees by March 1, 1899.

The building will be of an ornamental and substantial appearance. It will be built of pressed brick with imposing decorations of terra cotta and stone trimmings. There will be sufficient decoration to make the exterior pleasing to the eye. The building complete will cost about $250.000.

The office will face the Eleventh street entrance, which will be the main entrance of the house. The dining rooms will be on the same floor. The restaurant will be immediately in the rear of the office. The ladies' entrance will be on Baitimore avenue. The basement will contain the billiard rooms, bar, grill room, barber shop and baths and two large club rooms that will face Eleventh street. Baltimore avenue being eight feet higher than the rear of the lot will make the basement a very roomy place.

The interior of the building will be com-

The interior of the building will be completed in a very tasty manner. Every inch of the big building, which will be 150x117 feet, will be well utilized. The Ewins-Dean Hotel Company owns the Savoy hotel here, the Metropole at St. Joseph and will also own the new one. Its name has not been decided on yet. The St. Joseph and will also own the new one. Its name has not been decided on yet. The firm has met with flattering success at both points and has a flourishing trade at both points and has a flourishing trade at each house. It is now planning to remodel the Savoy so as to increase its capacity. "We believe there is room in Kansas City for another first-class house," said Manager Ewins yesterday. "The city is growing in every other way and if the Convention hall brings to the city the gatherings we believe it will there will be good business for all of the houses. We have been very kindly treated by the public since beginning business here and we have reason to believe the same treatmnt will since beginning business here and we have reason to believe the same treatmnt will in a measure fall to our lot at the new house. Mr. Corrigan has planned for us a fine place and will finish it for us in good shape. We will furnish it in fine style and feel confident we will be in position to care for the traveling public nice-ly. The interior plans of the house have been made to conserve the comfort and safety of the guests."

SHE WAS BITTEN BY A HORSE.

Husband's Rival for Heavy Damages. Can a horse-bite produce rheumatism? That is the interesting problem a jury in Judge Henry's court is trying to solve. The question arose in the damage suit of Mrs. G. E. Rees, cashier and superintendent o G. E. Rees, cashier and superintendent of the Market Square Grocery Company, against David Friedman, a grocer at 421 Walnut street. Mrs. Rees claims that she was bitten by the horse while passing in front of the store, October 4 of last year, and so hadly injured that she was unable to continue her occupation. She asserts that the animal bit her on her right arm, shoulder and elbow, lacerating her fiesh and inflicting ugly and dangerous wounds. She assessed her damages at $1,500, and asked the court that Friedman be made to pay her this amount.

The trial was the occasion of considerable wrangling among the attorneys. Expert testimony was introduced to ascertain if a horse's hite could produce rheumatism. The witness claimed that he had never known of such a case, but that set. never known of such a case, but that sci-ence had not yet been able to determine the origin of rheumatism. The case went to the jury at 5 o'clock.

Had a Regard for Minor Details.

John White, who was given thirty days in jail in Justice Case's court, does not believe in letting calamity make one lose sight of the minor affairs of life. White was a hired man in the family of George Doudna, out near Lee's Summit, and when he left the employ of Mr. Doudna, carried away a watch and revolver belonging in the house. At the conclusion of the trial, as the policeman was about to escort the prisoner to jail he called to the prosecuting witness and, producing a badly bethumbed account book, asked for the payment of a 45-cent balance which he claimed was due, him, at the same time backing up his claim with the plea that he would need fully that much money to keep him in chewing tobacco until his sentence should expire. Mr. Doudna did not relent. The Railroad Company Won.

The Railroad Company Won.

A verdict for the defendant was rendered in Judge Slover's court yesterday in the suit of the Sun insurance office and the Ferd Heim Brewing Company against the Missouri Pacific Railway Company. The insurance company and brewery sought to recover 4,755 from the railroad company for the destruction of a building and contents in the East bottoms by a fire which the plaintiffs claim was started by a spark from a Missouri Pacific locomotive. The property was insured in the Sun company and the insurance was paid.

HELPS THE ASSOCIATION.

Fee of 50 Cents for Every Bond to Go to the Police Relief Fund.

The board of police comm cided yesterday that a man who should be accepted as a surety on a bond ought to be able to put up 50 cents cash. The decision was made on an application from the Police Relief Association to be allowed to act under the law of 1885, which permits the association to receive 50 cents for every bond accepted for the violation of a city ordinance. The association did not have to secure the consent of the board to act under the law, which though it has not been enforced for years, is still on the state books. But as a matter of courtesy to the board the association asked its formal consent. Hereafter every signer of a bond for his own or another's appearance in police court must pay 50 cents, even if the party arrested is subsequently discharged, as is the case with one out of every three arrested.

Commissioners Gregory and Ward held that anybody who was fit to be accepted as a surety ought to be able to put up 50 cents cash, otherwise he would not be able to give a safe bond. They held that as the law, with which they had nothing to do, authorized the relief association to exact this fee, the only thing to do was to enforce the law and let the odium of whatever injustice results rest on the legislature.

Chief Haves explained to the board that have to secure the consent of the board to enforce the law and let the odium of whatever injustice results rest on the legislature.

Chief Hayes explained to the board that in the days of Chief Speers the chief appropriated unto himself this fee. This had resulted in the upheaval against the police rottenness, corruption and incompetency at that time and had also resulted in the law being enacted to collect a fee which should be given the police association instead of to the chief and financial officers. He assured the board that he would be good and would see that the money reached the relief association. It was suggested that the board should arrange to go into expert bookkeeping by way of being certain that the plan is not in line of old time holdups and continued police depravity.

Mayor Jones was opposed to the fee system and voted against allowing the relief association to enforce the law, which would compel many innocent persons to be imprisoned because they could not furnish even a 50 cent cash bond.

"Lots of people will go on somebody's bond," said the mayor, "if they don't have to put up any money and these are perfectly safe bonds. It is a very rare thing for a bond to prove worthless. Many persons who cannot furnish even a small cash bond will have to be locked up, when it would be perfectly safe to let them out on bond. The law is not obligatory and has not been enforced for years. It will work injustice in many cases, though in the great majority of cases it will not."

The board granted saloon licenses to Mitchell, at 3034 East Eighteenth: W. C. Roberts, at 2448 Belleview, and Joe Damico, at 50 East Third.

H. L. Eichenauer, who was charged with permitting crapshooting in his saloon at Seventeenth and Dripp, was let off with a warning.

Manufacturing Company Incorporates

The Uric Brewster Manufacturing Company filed articles of incorporation in the recorder's office yesterday. The capital stock is $50,000, half of which is subscribed and paid up. The object of the corporation is to deal in mining dredges and mining machinery of all kinds as well as to do a general foundry and machinery business. It will also locate and acquire mining lands, claims, lodes and dredging privileges. The board of directors for the first year is composed of W. J. Brewster, M. S. Brewster, J. C. Uric and W. T. Uric. These also constitute the stockholders. M. S. Brewster and J. C. Uric control 115 shares of the stock, each. W. J. Brewster owns one share and W. T. Uric controls ten shares, nine of which are held as trustee for Davis Uric. The establishment is to be located in Kansas City and is to be incorporated for fifty years.

Law Students to Debate.

The juniors and seniors of the Kansas City School of Law will ignore the all-important question of the Hispano-American war for one evening while they discuss in joint debate the question as to whether or not the president of the United States should be elected by direct vote of the people. The contest will begin at 8 o'clock Saturday night at the rooms of the law school in the Ridge building. Rev. Dr. Quayle and Attorney James H. Reed will act as judges.

The "Smoke" Cases Go Over. The cases of the various parties arrested for non-compliance with the anti-smoke ordinance, which were to have come up in the police court yesterday morning, were continued, the hearing in most of them being set for next Thursday. This was which kept the court in session until 11:50 a. m., and partly because of the heavy rain which probably kept some from appearing promptly at the hour set.

Something Tangible

When you're in a crush watching one of our noble regiments, cheering and speeding it in its God-sped "forward-march" for liberty, humanity, national honor and retribution, possibly you are forced to reflect-painfully ponder-that there is something very tangible in shoes. Truly, there are tender spots within American shoes, as within American breasts. We walk on others' toes, but not on our patrons'. It is the other shoe dealers who flinch—who have to grin and bear.

We know that we are walking rough shod over all the traditions of the retail shoe business. But our patrons appreciate our performance, so we shall continue it till all the country round knows of the bargains here. These prices are something tangible in shoessavings that you can feel-price differences so marked that you can-
